

Job Title: Radiologic Technologist - Full Time or PRN

Date Created: 4/22/2016

Reports To: Clinical Manager

Last Revision: 9/21/2016

Department: Radiology

FLSA: Non-Exempt

GENERAL SUMMARY OF DUTIES: Radiologic Technologist makes an assessment as to what x-rays should be taken prior to the office visit. Proper techniques must be used to obtain quality films for diagnostic purposes. Assist the Clinical Staff as needed.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- Performing x-rays exams
- Clinical duties
- Filing
- Other duties as assigned – i.e. providing images via films and disks, maintaining equipment and supplies

EDUCATION

Graduate of accredited x-ray technician program. Registration as an American Registered Radiologic Technologist (ARRT).

EXPERIENCE

Prefer minimum of 1 year work experience in a health care facility setting.

ENVIRONMENTAL/WORKING CONDITIONS

Work is performed in a medical practice environment. Involves frequent contact with staff and the public. Work may be stressful at times. Contact may involve dealing with angry or upset people. Exposure to bodily fluids is possible.

PHYSICAL/MENTAL DEMANDS

Work requires dexterity for walking, stooping, bending and lifting, mobility to assist patients, or standing and walking for extended periods of time. Requires ability to move equipment and transfer patients. Must possess visual and auditory acuity in order to communicate with physicians, co-workers, patients and other customer groups. Possible exposure to chemical hazards, but is not limited to toxic hazardous substances, film processing solutions and disinfectants. Possible exposure to communicable diseases and body fluids. Must be able to lift patients.

Employee Print

Date

Employee Signature

Date